

2019 Shawnee Lodge

Vigil Honor Candidates

Garry R. Aronberg

Scouter Garry Aronberg is committed to the Scouting Program. Earning Eagle Scout as a youth, he has remained steadfast in his dedication to his unit, starting it back up after it had folded and serving as its Scoutmaster . Over the years, Garry has served in the roles of Committee Chairman and Assistant Scoutmaster, and has served as Scoutmaster for over two decades. The Unit is the backbone of Scouting, and Garry has been the backbone of his unit for more years than the Scouts in his troop have been alive. For his unending passion for growing young men into leaders, we thankfully nominate Garry R. Aronberg for the Vigil honor.

Lisa M. Balbes

Scouter Lisa Balbes is a vital member in the council and national Boy Scout and Cub Scout program. She was a Tiger Cub leader and is Wood Badge trained. She served as her district's Friends of Scouting Chair for three years as well as the council Friends of Scouting Chair for one year. She served her district as its Advancement Chair for three years. Lisa has been the Council's STEM University Chair for the last four years. For her efforts, she earned the Silver Beaver in 2014. Lisa has also been involved nationally, serving on the National STEM Committee for the last 7 years and the chair for the planning and success of the STEMQuest program at the 2017 National Jamboree. Her future service includes being selected to serve as the STEM curriculum developer for the 2019 World Scout Jamboree. Lisa's service has impacted Scouts and Scouters across the district, council, nation, and world. For all these reasons and more, we cheerfully nominate Lisa M. Balbes for the Vigil honor.

Harvey T. Barrett

Scouter Tom Barrett is an ardent supporter of the Scouting program. With a clear passion for training, Tom has served on his District's Adult Leader Training Staff and Roundtable Staff along with serving on multiple courses of Wood Badge staff. Tom is also very involved in many of the Council's fishing programs, including Certified Angling Instructor Training. Tom is also well known for his frisbee golf passion and was instrumental in putting together a course at S-F. Tom's willingness to serve is known by most who come in contact with him and has a great impact on the youth in his Unit and the leaders he trains. For his dedication to developing both Scouts and Scouters into better leaders, we enthusiastically nominate Harvey T. Barrett for the Vigil Honor.

Brian A. Beffa

Brian Beffa has shown remarkable service and cheerfulness through his service to his troop, his chapter, and his council. Brian has served his Chapter through one term as Chapter Secretary, and two terms as Chapter First Vice Chief. He was a driving force behind restarting his Chapter's Ceremonial teams, both Ordeal and Brotherhood. He has been a passionate ceremonialist for the past 3 years. In addition, Brian has been played an important role on the Council's Summer Camp Staff. For his admirable dedication and service to the Order of the Arrow and to the Council's camping program, we ardently nominate Brian A. Beffa for the Vigil Honor.

Malcolm A. Bliss III

Scouter Malcolm Bliss has done a lot to help the Scouting movement. Malcolm has served as an NYLT Scoutmaster for many years. Additionally, he has served his district in a multitude of positions, including as an Adult Leader Training Course Director. For his efforts, Malcolm has also earned the District Award of Merit. Malcolm's passion for the Order has led him to become an adviser for ceremonial teams, a position he has continued in for many years. At the 2018 National Order of the Arrow Conference, Malcolm served on staff in the COPE area. Due to his tireless dedication, we fervently nominate Malcolm A. Bliss III for the Vigil Honor.

Christopher S. Bridgmon

Eagle Scout Christopher Bridgmon has cheerfully devoted his time to the Order of the Arrow and the camping program. He has been involved in ceremony teams, served on numerous camporee staffs, and held many leadership roles. He has served his Chapter as Chapter Secretary, Chapter First Vice Chief, and currently serves as Chapter Chief. He has also been a part of many Crossover ceremonies and has served on an Ordeal Team for the past five years. For his incredible contributions and selfless attitude, we happily nominate Christopher S. Bridgmon for the Vigil Honor.

Bryan J. Brush

Scouter Bryan Brush has been an active member in Scouting.. As a youth, he served as Chapter Chief, Camporee Camp Master, and spent his summers on JLTC staff. Bryan has been very involved in the Pinewood Derby program for his district over the last 8 years. He has been a vital member of the council Quartermaster staff for 17 years and was a contingent quartermaster for the 2017 National Jamboree. He earned the District Award of Merit in 2015 and the Silver Beaver in 2018. For his leadership and dedication, we take great pride in nominating Bryan J. Brush for the Vigil Honor.

Michael P. Colletti

Eagle Scout Michael Colletti has wholeheartedly dedicated his time to Scouting. Through his many years of service to his chapter, Michael has been a Chairman, 2nd Vice Chief, and is currently serving as Chapter Chief. Michael has also been a vital member of his chapter's Brotherhood team. Michael has served for many years on the National Youth Leadership Training Staff and continues to give servant leadership whenever he can. For his gracious effort to improve the Scouting program, we excitedly nominate Michael P. Colletti for the Vigil Honor.

Teresa A. Colletti

Scouter Teresa Colletti started out in Scouting as a Cub Scout Den Leader for 5 years before moving on to the troop level. Teresa's passion for science led to her involvement in the STEM program during its earliest stages. She has since helped countless youth earn Nova and Supernova awards. She was the Council's STEM training chair for 3 years, later to become the National STEM Committee chair in 2016. In 2017, she was an area lead for STEMquest. In other areas, Teresa has served on Adult Leader Training staff, and has served as a Campmaster for three Cub Scout Camps. These efforts earned her the Silver Beaver award. For her tremendous passion in helping develop Scouts across the country, we are honored to nominate Teresa A. Colletti for the Vigil Honor.

John F. Culian

Scouter Jack Culian has demonstrated significant service to the Scouting program. Jack has served as an his troop's OA Adviser, Committee Chair, and as a Merit Badge Counselor for many years. He has served his district in a number of roles including currently as its Training Chair. Additionally, he is serving his Chapter as Service Adviser. He continues to serve the youth each summer on NYLT staff where he has spent the last five years. For his outstanding dedication to the Scouting program, we proudly nominate John F. Culian for the Vigil Honor.

Joseph C. Devos

Scouter Joe Devos has demonstrated great commitment to the Order of the Arrow and the Scouting program. Joe is currently serving as both his troop's Scoutmaster and as his Crew's Adviser. Joe has helped mentor two Camporee and Klondike Staffs. Additionally, Joe has sponsored events in his Chapter promoting the founding ideals of the Order of the Arrow. For his dedication to the Order of the Arrow and the Scouting program, we staunchly nominate Joseph C. Devos for the Vigil Honor.

Adrian J. DeYong

Eagle Scout Jim DeYong has shown great dedication and enthusiasm to the Scouting program. Jim has served his Chapter as Program Chairman, and as Chapter First Vice Chief. Additionally, Jim has spent two years on Summer Camp Staff, setting a cheerful example to campers and fellow staffers alike. Jim's friendly attitude and strong work ethic serve as a model for all to follow. For his incredible cheerfulness and service to the Order and the camping program, we humbly nominate Adrian J. DeYong for the Vigil Honor.

Benjamin D. Duncan

Eagle Scout Ben Duncan has shown service and dedication through his admirable work in his troop, chapter, and the summer camp program. He has served his Chapter as both Second Vice Chief and as Chapter Chief. Impressively, he helped found his Chapter's Ordeal Team in 2015 and has helped keep it going since. Ben served his council through both NYLT and Summer Camp staff. Ben has previously planned District Camporees, and in his own troop, he has served as Senior Patrol Leader and numerous other leadership positions. For his passion and dedication to the Order of the Arrow and Scouting as a whole, we enthusiastically nominate Benjamin D. Duncan for the Vigil Honor.

Susan M. Ehlenbeck

Scouter Susan Ehlenbeck has devoted her time to her Chapter, her Troop, her Pack, and her Crew. Susan serves as the OA Troop Advisor for her Troop and the Charter Org. Rep. for her Pack. She also dedicated a lot of time towards her Venture Crew serving as Crew Adviser. Additionally, she serves as an Advisor for her Chapter Brotherhood Ceremony Team. All of these efforts have earned her the District Award of Merit as well as the Venturing Adult Servant Leader Award. For her strong dedication in all areas of Scouting, we proudly nominate Susan M. Ehlenbeck for the Vigil Honor.

Dawn M. Fansler

Scouter Dawn Fansler has shown tremendous leadership and dedication to the Scouting program. She has been regarded highly as an instructor, mentoring many adult and youth staff over her several years of service in NYLT. For her service, her district awarded her with the District Award of Merit. Currently Dawn serves the Order of the Arrow as Chapter Adviser. Dawn has also helped out on many activities and events throughout the district. Through Dawn's loyal, energetic, and dedicated service to the Scouting program, we happily nominate Dawn M. Fansler for the Vigil Honor.

Josiah L. Fansler

Eagle Scout Josiah Fansler has been determined to improve the Scouting program for all those he interacts with. Through many years of service on National Youth Leadership Training staff he has worked effortlessly to ensure the best program is provided. Josiah has also been a vital member on his chapter's ceremonial teams for the past 5 years. His actions in the Order have been recognized by his peers, leading to his election as Chapter Chief this year. For his dependable efforts to improve Scouting, we eagerly nominate Josiah L. Fansler for the Vigil Honor.

Micah J. Fansler

For several years, Eagle Scout Micah Fansler has served his chapter by taking part in organizing one of the Ordeal ceremony teams. Additionally, Micah has helped out on district PACAO and Camporee staff for many years. Most recently, Micah served on the Philmont Wrangler Staff and plans to serve again in the coming year. Micah put other Scouts' safety before his own by being one of the last to evacuate during the fires at Philmont this summer, then stayed to help rebuild fencing and removed the shoes off nearly 400 horses over several days. Micah dreams of living and working at Philmont after college. For his persistent and caring efforts to the Order and Camping program, we humbly nominate Micah J. Fansler for the Vigil Honor.

Michael S. Ficken

Scouter Mike Ficken has proved time and time again how he serves the Scouting Program. In the Chapter, he serves as Advisor to the Program Chairman and lends advice to help all members of the Chapter Executive Committee when they need it. Mike has served as Scoutmaster, OA Assistant Scoutmaster, and as an advisor to many Scouts in his home troop. In addition to all of this, Mike has donated use of his banquet hall to many organizations involved with the district, including the OA chapter. Mike is known to be kind, helpful, and giving. With confidence of his continued service to all Scouts, we proudly nominate Michael S. Ficken for the Vigil Honor.

Caleb J. Fink

Eagle Scout Caleb Fink has dependably served the Order of the Arrow for many years. For four consecutive years, Caleb has served his chapter as the Program Chairman. In addition to his service to the chapter, Caleb has served on NYLT Staff for multiple summers. Caleb has also served his District as a Camporee Campmaster. Caleb is known to be the level-headed person who helps keep everyone together and focused from behind the scenes. Because of his incredible commitment to Scouting, we cheerfully nominate Caleb J. Fink for the Vigil Honor.

Kimberly A. Fleming

Scouter Kim Fleming has been actively involved in Scouting for many years. First serving as a Unit Commissioner, she worked her way up to District Commissioner. She has been on Cub Scout Leader Training Staff, Wood Badge Staff, National Jamboree Staff, NYLT Staff, and has been on Boy Scout Adult Leader Training Staff for 10 years. Kim has been recognized with both the District Award of Merit and Silver Beaver awards. Kim has continued to show unique ways to make learning fun and interesting in all areas of Scouting. For her obvious love of the Scouting program, we are honored to nominate Kimberly A. Fleming for the Vigil Honor.

Samuel S. Fling

Eagle Scout Sam Fling has shown unparalleled enthusiasm and service to the council's Summer Camp program. Sam has worked on camp staff for the past five summers, most recently serving as Commissioner. Previously, he has been both a Lodge Chairman and Chapter Officer. Sam has been described as an integral part of the Summer Camp staff, with an infectious cheerfulness and amazing leadership abilities. For his incomparable service to the Summer Camp program, we are privileged to nominate Samuel S. Fling for the Vigil Honor.

Charles M. Griffy

Scouter Charlie Griffy has demonstrated remarkable devotion to our Council and the Scouting program. Charlie has held positions within the Troop, Crew, and Chapter, and currently serves the council as Head Ranger at Beaumont Scout Reservation. In Charlie's time as a Ranger, he has quickly become known as someone who will always lend a helping hand even on his days off. Charlie is the epitome of what it means to live the Scout Oath and Law in his everyday life. For his impassioned devoted service to the Scouts in our Council, we zealously nominate Charles M. Griffy for the Vigil Honor.

Aaron B. Harms

Eagle Scout Aaron Harms has been an active leader in his Troop, Crew, and in the Order. Aaron has spent many summers serving on Camp Staff as well as on NYLT Staff. Aaron has served as an Elangomat multiple times and is currently on his Chapter's Brotherhood team. For his kind service to the Order and all the Scouts he has worked with, we are happy to nominate Aaron B. Harms for the Vigil Honor.

Rollin F. Jackson Sr.

Scouter Rollin Jackson shows endless enthusiasm for the Scouting Program. Serving as District Commissioner, he strengthens and spearheads efforts to improve district functions. Rollin has served on National Youth Leadership Training staff where his endless excitement for the program has become infectious. His passion for Scouting has led him to attend NAYLE, Philmont, and National Jamboree staff. For his unyielding devotion to Scouting, we proudly nominate Rollin F. Jackson Sr. for the Vigil Honor.

Rollin F. Jackson Jr.

Eagle Scout RJ Jackson has worked very hard during his time in Scouting. In the Chapter, he has served as Secretary, 2nd Vice Chief, and currently serves as 1st Vice Chief. RJ has served on numerous staffs over the years including: NYLT Staff, NAYLE Staff, NYLT Leadership Academy Staff, and NOAC Staff. RJ currently serves as the council VSOA Vice President of Program. RJ has not only taken advantage of the Scouting program, but also returned to many of the programs he attended to help Scouts learn the valuable skills that have turned him into the leader he is today. Due to his dedicated service to Scouting, we excitedly nominate Rollin F. Jackson Jr. for the Vigil Honor.

Cole G. Johnson

Eagle Scout Cole Johnson has provided exemplary service to Scouting over the years. He has served for 5 years on his Chapter's ceremonial team and has earned his Chapter's Distinguished Arrowman award. Cole has served his Chapter as a chairman the past two years and currently serves his Chapter as its 2nd Vice Chief. In his troop, he has served as SPL and Troop OA Representative. Cole is truly a shining example of an exemplary Scout. Because of his undying passion for Scouting, we enthusiastically nominate Cole G. Johnson for the Vigil Honor.

John M. Kavanaugh

Scouter John Kavanaugh cares very deeply for the Scouting program. He has served as a Scoutmaster and Venturing Crew Advisor for many years. In addition to this, John has worked on several Wood Badge courses, including serving as a Course Director. He has also served his district as the Eagle Board Chairman. John has been recognized with the Scoutmaster's Key, Silver Beaver, and District Award of Merit for his service. Due to his unwavering devotion to Scouting's youth, we joyfully nominate John M. Kavanaugh for the Vigil Honor.

Joel A. Kerschen

Scouter Joel Kerschen has been a driving force in his troop for the past 15 years serving in numerous roles including Scoutmaster. Additionally, he has served as a ceremonial team adviser for both Ordeal and Brotherhood teams. He has been on staff for numerous camporees and has been an adult leader on NYLT Pack and Paddle. Through his efforts, he has earned the Scoutmaster's Key and the District Award of Merit. Joel is known in his troop and district for being a dedicated and trustworthy leader and role model. For his continued support of his Troop, Chapter, and the Council, we eagerly nominate Joel A. Kerschen for the Vigil Honor.

John C. Kirkpatrick

Scouter John Kirkpatrick has been an example of the Scout Oath and Law to Scouts across the council. John has been a part of the CSAW/BSAW program for more than 15 years across three different districts. He loves the program so much that he helped a different district start the program up for the first time. Impressively John has also served on National Camp School staffs for five years and has spent five years as a Certified Angler Instructor. He is dedicated to the Scouting program, and for these reasons, we sincerely nominate John C. Kirkpatrick for the Vigil Honor.

Gavin W. Knapp

Eagle Scout Gavin Knapp cheerfully serves his district, his chapter, and the council. Gavin has assisted on many District Camporees including as a Campmaster. Gavin has spent the past two summers working on the Council's Summer Camp Staff. In the Order, he has served as his Chapter's Secretary and currently serves as the Lodge Treasurer. He is also active in Venturing, serving as the VSOA District President. Gavin has also made plans to join Alpha Phi Omega, the Scouting and service fraternity, once in college to continue giving back to Scouting. For his unselfish, outgoing service and leadership, we proudly nominate Gavin W. Knapp for the Vigil Honor.

Michael A. Kreienkamp

Eagle Scout Michael Kreienkamp has devoted every free moment to Scouting. Serving his lodge as a chairman and chapter as a chairman, Secretary, and 2nd Vice Chief, Michael has shown nothing but dedication. Michael has been responsible for many initiatives to improve communication on the chapter and lodge level and continues to work effortlessly on any task he is given. For his humble devotion to the Scouting program, we proudly nominate Michael A. Kreienkamp for the Vigil Honor.

Lucas M. Laiben

Luke Laiben has shown dedication to Scouting through his involvement in the Order of the Arrow and Camp Staff. He has served on his Ceremony Team for years and continues to give back to the program. He has served as Chapter Second Vice Chief, Chapter Chief, and currently serves as Lodge Recording Secretary. He has also served his Council camps by being a Counselor in Training and a Camp Staff member. He continues to serve the Scouting program in his daily life. For these reasons, we enthusiastically nominate Lucas M. Laiben for the Vigil Honor.

Zachary D. Lloyd

Eagle Scout Zach Lloyd has shown extreme dedication to his Chapter. He has served on many camporee staffs and has been a Ceremonialist for four years. He has served as Chapter Second Vice Chief, Chapter First Vice Chief, and currently serves as Chapter Chief. He volunteers for any task and shows he is truly a leader. For his dedication to his Chapter, we cheerfully nominate Zachary D. Lloyd for the Vigil Honor.

Becky J. Lutz

Scouter Becky Lutz is truly dedicated to her Troop and her District. She serves her Troop as an Assistant Scoutmaster, but she has organized and lead many Scouting trips and has even taken Scouts from other Troops in the District to places such as backpacking through Yellowstone National Park, Philmont, Swamp Base, and soon to Northern Tier in 2019. She willingly stepped into the position of District Camping Chairman and has served that position greatly. Becky was part of the original Okpik trial run and has served several years on Okpik staff despite not liking cold weather. For her commitment to the Troop and the District, we wholeheartedly nominate Becky J. Lutz for the Vigil Honor.

Zachary G. Mason

Eagle Scout Zach Mason is truly dedicated to helping his fellow Scouts. Zach has served for many years on NYLT Staff and will serve as an Assistant Youth Director in 2019. Zach has also served in many positions for his Chapter and the Lodge including Chapter Secretary, Lodge Service Chairman and Lodge Communications Chairman. Zach has served as SPL in his home troop and on the council's 2017 National Jamboree Contingent. In addition to all of this, Zach has found time to work at various Cub Scout Camps. Zach's resolve to better his community around him is apparent in everything he does, and it is with our confidence in his continued service that we excitedly nominate Zachary G. Mason for the Vigil Honor.

Matthew C. Meyer

Scouter Matt Meyer has shown remarkable service to his District and OA Chapter. Mr. Meyer currently serves as District Camping Chairman, working tirelessly to ensure that every District Camping event goes off without a hitch, and introducing new and interesting programs to the area's units. He previously served as District Popcorn Kernel, donning a Popcorn hat and cape, visiting local Cub Scout packs as his alter-ego, Captain Corn. Mr. Meyer has served as Chapter Ceremonial Adviser for the last three years, offering his backyard and burgers to practicing ceremonialists. For his inimitable passion and love of Scouting, we proudly nominate Matthew C. Meyer for the Vigil Honor.

Terry L. Meyers

Scouter Terry Meyers has been an active leader in her chapter. Terry has served as Assistant Scoutmaster, Crew Adviser, and Den Leader. Terry has assisted in leading her Troop and Crew in many High Adventure treks. Terry has served as a Ceremonial Adviser for many years. For her many years of consistent service to these units and her chapter, we proudly nominate Terry L. Meyers for the Vigil Honor.

Tracy L. Meyers-Harvey

Scouter Tracy Meyers-Harvey has consistently served as a leader in all the units she is associated with. Tracy has served as Crew Associate Adviser and Committee, Assistant Scoutmaster, Order of the Arrow Adviser, and Troop High Adventure Coordinator/Adviser for ten treks. Tracy has served as an Ordeal team Adviser. For her enthusiastic promotion of the High Adventure program, we joyously nominate Tracy L. Meyers-Harvey for the Vigil Honor.

Caiden F. Owens

Eagle Scout Caiden Owens personifies the ideals of the Brotherhood of Cheerful Service. Caiden has served as a chapter chairman for 2 years. Caiden has also served as a Youth Director for the council's NYLT program and will serve as one again in 2019. Caiden has earned his chapter's Distinguished Arrowman award. Caiden has also served as SPL of his troop. Caiden has put a lot of care into giving back to the Scouting program and because of this we eagerly nominate Caiden F. Owens for the Vigil Honor.

Nathan J. Searcy

Eagle Scout Nathan Searcy has put in much dedication to the Chapter. Nathan has been Chapter 2nd Vice Chief for 2 years and still continues to go above and beyond his duties. He has also been very dedicated to his Chapter's Ceremony Teams. Nathan has portrayed Nutiket for 6 years on both the Ordeal and the Brotherhood Team. Because of his hard work and dedication for the chapter, we proudly nominate Nathan J. Searcy for the Vigil Honor.

James M. Steinbrenner

Scouter Jim Steinbrenner has shown great commitment and dedication to the Order and the Scouting Community. He has served as a Scoutmaster for a NYLT Pack and Paddle Troop keeping spirits high and homesickness away by telling stories and jokes. He has also done tremendous work with one of his chapter's ceremonial teams, acting as a Co-Advisor. While helping organize and lead groups during site preparation, he keeps things youth-led. He left an impression on the Chapter, inspiring Candidates to take on the Obligation of the Order and Ordeal members to seal their membership in the Order by attaining the Brotherhood Honor. For his dedication to Scouting and to the Order, we humbly nominate James M. Steinbrenner for the Vigil Honor.

Noah C. Stelmachowicz

Eagle Scout Noah Stelmachowicz truly exemplifies Scouting's values. He has served on NYLT staff as well as several years on the Council's Camp Staff, spending his summers giving back to Scouting's youth. In his time serving on Camp Staff, Noah has fulfilled many roles including Order of the Arrow Coordinator, ensuring Elections and Call Out run smoothly, as well as being an Area Director, teaching scouts valuable skills and overseeing a team of fellow staffers. For Noah's exemplary service to the Council's Summer Camps and his continuing involvement in the Scouting Program, we wholeheartedly nominate Noah C. Stelmachowicz for the Vigil Honor.

Barbara A. Stretch

Scouter Barbara Stretch has been a Scout Leader for many years. She is always willing to help the youth. Being an Assistant Scoutmaster for many years and being involved at all levels of Scouting, she shows how dedicated she is to the Scouting Program. She shows cheerful service at all Scouting events and in her daily life. For these reasons, we cheerfully nominate Barbara A. Stretch for the Vigil Honor.

Matthew T. Traum

Matt Traum is incredibly dedicated to the Scouting program. For years Matt has served as a ceremonialist on his troop's Ordeal and Brotherhood Teams. He has served as the Cub Scout Support Chairman, 1st Vice Chief and currently serves as Chapter Chief for his Chapter. In his troop, he has served as Senior Patrol Leader. Matt has served on many camporee staffs, including a term as a District Campmaster. He has also served on a Den Chief Training Staff and he has served on Camp Staff for 2 Years as a trading post aid and nature counselor. Time and time again, Matt has proven his dedication to his fellow man, with this knowledge in mind, we proudly nominate Matthew T. Traum for the Vigil Honor.

Paul W. Trebing

Paul Trebing has served passionately in his Troop, District, and in the NYLT program. Paul has served on NYLT Staff the past six years serving this past year as Youth Director of Week 3. Paul served as his Troop's SPL, ASPL, Patrol Leader, and Troop Guide. In his Crew, Paul has served as Crew President. Paul has served in his District's Venturing Officers Association as District President. For his cheerful service to the Scouting program, we happily nominate Paul W. Trebing for the Vigil Honor.

Max J. Wild

Eagle Scout Max Wild is a dedicated and hardworking member of the Order. Since his induction, he has played an important role in his Chapter and District. Max served as his Chapter's Service Chairman, planning several service projects, allowing others to have more opportunities to complete their Brotherhood requirements. He has also served as Chapter Secretary and First Vice Chief, devoting time and effort to ensuring his Chapter runs smoothly. At the District level, Max has served on several Camporee Staffs, also performing the role of Camp Master. For his continued service to his Unit, District, and Chapter, we ecstatically nominate Max J. Wild for the Vigil Honor.